TRINITY BAPTIST CHURCH | MARCH 2019

For The Journey ...

Very seldom do we put together a plan and see every detail carried out exactly as we planned. There is this thing called life that sometimes gets in the way. We are grateful for it as well as the journey and process it brings. We find ourselves navigating life every day. Our hope in all of life is that we can see the Lord in what we are doing and make adjustments when we don't. Though some will read this in regard to a building, I see it more in light of our every day living.

I am so thankful for Trinity Baptist Church and the tenured ministry God has blessed through the years. Trinity Baptist is a wonderful people and I am excited about how God will speak to us as we make plans, even with adjustments, moving forward. We are having more conversations than we have had in quite a while. A family should have conversations. February brought to our attention several items of discussion. One was with a neighborhood and the potential closing of Bluebell in front of the church. The neighborhood was very adamant in their opposition to our proposal. Our Long Range Planning Task Force took to heart what was said and are investigating other options. We have had two separate Church conversations on back to back Tuesdays in which the Church had wonderful questions and presented different options. Our LRPTF will be meeting soon and will continue to keep the Church informed until the Church decides our best option for safety, church health, and church growth. We may not know exactly what God is leading us to, but we can be certain that He is leading us forward. Exciting days are ahead.

This month the Youth Minister Search Committee will be bringing Wes Henson before our church for approval. I hope you will make it a point to come to the Church Reception from 3:00 to 5:00 on Saturday, March 2 in the Family Life Center. You can meet Wes and his wife Mica and their two daughters, Anna and Charis. We will be voting in all three services on Sunday morning, March 3. I appreciate our Search Committee and the time and prayer given to this task.

I recently had the opportunity of attending the Unapologetic Conference in Waco, Texas. I observed an atheist and a Christian scholar debate the existence of God on Friday night and then attended the conference on Saturday. We are told in Scripture, "But in your hearts set apart Christ as Lord. Always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope that you have. But do this with gentleness and respect, keeping a clear conscience, so that those who speak maliciously against your good behavior in Christ may be ashamed for their slander." 1 Peter 3:15-16

"Be wise in the way you act toward outsiders; make the most of every opportunity. Let your conversations be always full of grace, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how to answer everyone." Colossians 4:5-6

Thank you, Trinity Baptist Church, for being spiritually vibrant. We have a story to tell all who will listen. I love our Church and the opportunity we have before us to make a difference in our community and world.

Join us for 40 Days in reading the Bible together. If you didn't get a schedule in your March 3 Sunday bulletin, you may pick one up in the office.

In Christ, Pastor John
