MONTHLY NEWSLETTER OF TRINITY BAPTIST CHURCH
MARCH 2024 – VOLUME 5, ISSUE 3

For the Journey...

God is so good! I am so blessed to be a member of a transformational and missional church. I am encouraged often by the words and actions of Trinity Baptist Church. It is hard to believe that two months of 2024 have already passed. As we lean into March, we are approaching the season of celebrating the Resurrection of our LORD Jesus.

The Victor is in full swing and so are our preparations to be ready when folks come to experience it with us this year. As a part of our preparation, we have added Victor Prayer Circles. We have encouraged our Bible study classes to gather and pray for those who need to respond to the message of salvation and hope through Jesus. We also have several homes who are inviting church member neighbors to come and pray also. We will cover many days and especially the days of our Victor offerings in prayer and anticipation.

Also, in preparation, we are providing evangelism training at Midweek prior to the Victor. By the time you read this, there will be two more Midweek opportunities on March 6th and 13th at 6:00 p.m. We also have our Midweek meal at 5:00 p.m. for the best price in town of $5. Come and take advantage of being prepared to share the gospel in many different situations.

We are in a new sermon series, "Who is this Man?" We will be looking at the miracles of Jesus between now and Resurrection Sunday with the greatest miracle of all on that special day.

Good things are taking place and it is encouraging to hear about them when we get together. Thank you, Trinity, for being willing and faithful to our journey forward, remembering all God has done in our past and confident God has more to come.

In Christ,

Pastor John

GriefShare by Doug Lusk

A new cycle of GriefShare, so ably facilitated by Pattie Davis and a number of co-facilitators, began in January after being delayed by severe weather and will consist of 13 weekly sessions. This program is a support group to help and encourage persons after the death of a spouse, child, family member or friend.

These sessions aim to help each participant, collectively and individually, learn to deal with their grief and loss; a place where they may move forward in their journey from mourning to joy. Guided by the facilitators, each meeting features a video, group discussion, and the use of a personal workbook. The videos, approximately 35 minutes in length, feature comments and suggestions by experts who help deal with loss, personal stories of people who are grieving, and enactments by some about how they have confronted their own situation.

The group discussions, which are completely confidential, offer participants the opportunity to share something they noted, to ask questions they may have, or to learn how something shown in the video or expressed by others might apply to one's own life. It can prove to be a vital source in finding the help and comfort they seek.

The workbook has questions, suggestions, and Bible verses which can help an individual in learning how to cope with their loss. For instance, an item from the workbook might cause them to approach their loss more directly.

We are in the third session of our new cycle and gather each Monday morning at 10 AM for the next 10 weeks to complete the 13-week schedule. The GriefShare program has become a regular feature of the ministries supported by Trinity Baptist Church. Class participants consist of members and non-members of Trinity and class size naturally varies from cycle to cycle depending on circumstances. Some members are so appreciative of their progress that they join in a second cycle. Two cycles per year are available at Trinity Baptist Church.

Many people find that grief is a surprisingly complex subject and that their needs and solutions may be quite different from those of fellow participants. But somewhere in the 13 sessions, it seems often to happen that by hearing what others share about their stories, a listener might find an approach that they can use. A group of folks on a similar journey, giving and receiving ideas and support...that's what GriefShare is.

Pilgrims of Faith Class by Marti Jones

The Pilgrims of Faith Class is a group of men and women who, as the name implies, are journeying through life relying on their faith. We are a group who cares about the needs of others and pray for one another.

Our teacher, Truman Martin, diligently studies the lesson each week to lead us in meaningful discussion of our weekly lessons. Bitsy Martin, his right hand, begins our class by ringing her little bell for our class to come to order. You see, we thoroughly enjoy visiting with each other before class and we have a tendency of being a little noisy. She is responsible for announcements, updating us on those we have been praying for, additional prayer requests and leading us in prayer.

We also offer a class via Zoom for those who can't attend in person.

Our Spring lesson book is entitled "Servants for His Glory", described as "Cultivating Christlikeness in a World of Performance."

We have numerous meaningful activities. The women visit the residents of River Point once a month for a sing along and devotional time.

After our visit with our sweet friends, our ladies enjoy lunch together at a local restaurant.

The men meet once a month for breakfast at their favorite spot, "Cracker Barrel" where they enjoy visiting together.

Collectively, we enjoy get-together parties from time to time. Our next party will be April 15th.

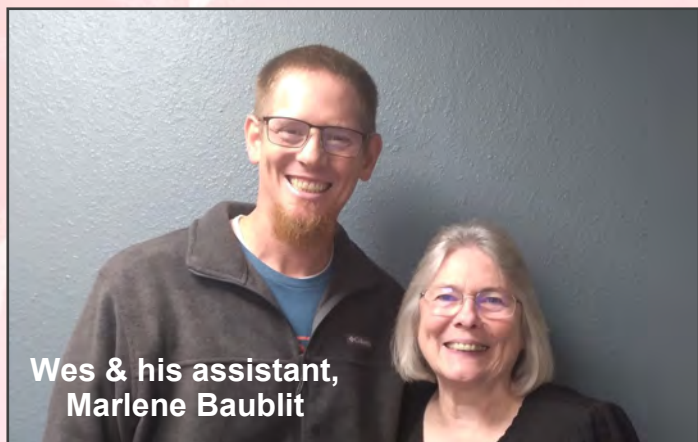

Although we have a great comradery, our main concern is to grow spiritually and to look for ways we can share the love of Jesus.

Our most recent outreach project was helping a couple in Mexico (Victor and Carla Avila). These seminary graduates have taken on the responsibility of ministering to the children at the Navolato Baptist Church. We took up a collection to help with transportation, Christmas dinner and Christmas parties for the children. What a blessing to see pictures of the children at church celebrating the birth of Jesus.

I could go on and on about our wonderful Bible study class, but the best would be for you to just come check us out.

Disciple Now by Becky Watkins

What do you get when you have 47 teens, 35 adults, 10+ vehicles, a 20 foot sub sandwich, countless snacks, dozens upon dozens of cookies, 3 days and 2 nights, and Bible Studies & Worship? AN AWESOME DISCIPLE NOW!

It was a blessing to be a part of Disciple Now 2024 here at TBC. What an absolute honor and privilege to serve alongside our TBC family for the good of our youth. The bonding, relationship building, and forming of new friendships, among both the youth and adults, will be life changing and we will reap the benefits from our time together. The teamwork it took to make D-Now successful, seemed at times, overwhelming, but our church family stepped up and SHOWED OUT!

Thank you to each and every one of you that prayed, baked cookies, bought snacks, drove a vehicle full of students, and many other responsibilities that were taken on by our servant leaders.

Walk Thru Easter by Melissa Marcum

My family moved to Kerrville in the Fall of 2015 when our youngest, Arwen, was only 6 weeks old. We spent months visiting churches and praying about where God wanted us to plug in. We knew wherever that was would be where Cami and Arwen would grow up physically and spiritually.

On March 28, 2016, we took the girls to something called "Walk Thru Easter" here at Trinity Baptist Church. Cami and Arwen waved palm branches, tasted bitter herbs, but their favorite thing was rolling the stone away to reveal an empty grave! We joined Trinity shortly after that Easter and have been so blessed by the people in Children's ministry that have walked alongside us to teach, show, and be Jesus to our girls.

I encourage you to bring your children, both little and big, to Walk Thru Easter with us. Let the hope of Easter come alive for you and your children as we celebrate the Hope of Easter in the Power of Christ's resurrection!

An Indoor Trinity Event

Join us and walk thru 5 different stations that tell the Easter Story. Followed by an Easter Egg Hunt.
